

Board Policy No. 621

SUBJECT: Requests for Cooperative Information

I. PURPOSE

To establish the rules and procedures to be followed in response to requests for cooperative information.

II. CONTENT

The cooperative's response to requests for cooperative information shall be governed by the following:

- A. Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and IRS Form 990 information will be made available upon request.
- B. All other reasonable requests by members for such routine things as rate schedules, rules and regulations, published policies, operating statistics, etc. shall be considered by the Chief Executive Officer. Reasonable requests for routine information shall be granted. Requests not deemed reasonable or requests for information not deemed routine by the Chief Executive Officer shall be referred to the cooperative's general counsel and/or the Board of Directors as necessary.
- C. All other requests for information will be made in writing on the attached Information Request form.
- D. The Request Form as executed will be reviewed as soon as possible by the Chief Executive Officer, who, before acting thereon, will consult with the cooperative's general counsel. If the two of them conclude (1) that the request is in good faith, (2) that the information requested and the purpose for which it is requested are materially germane to the requesting person's status or interests and (3) that furnishing the requested information will not be inimical to the cooperative's best interest, they may provide for the time and manner for making such information available during normal business hours. If either or both disagree as to the truth of any of the foregoing three factors, the matter will be referred to the Board of Directors for decision. In no event will the cooperative allow any party merely to go on an expedition in the hope of discovering information upon which to oppose the cooperative. Board, board committee and staff committee meeting minutes will be provided within reasonable guidelines. No portion of such minutes shall be thusly made available if it contains matters of a confidential nature the release of which might subject the cooperative to unwarranted claims or litigation or might invade the privacy of any person. Without regard to the action that is or may be taken in response thereto, the Chief Executive Officer will report to each meeting of the Board of Directors with respect to any member information requests received since the last such report.

- E. Information that will not be furnished except pursuant to a court order is as follows:
1. The names, addresses or telephone numbers of the employees or members, past or current; or
 2. Hourly wages or salaries and fringe benefits of specific employees; or
 3. Any employee's personnel file or records, or any other person's such file or records.
 4. Any information which constitutes a trade secret, process, program, trademark or other legally protective confidential information or things owned, or protected in confidentiality by contract, by the cooperative including negotiations and contract discussions.

III. RESPONSIBILITY

It shall be the responsibility of the Chief Executive Officer to implement and enforce this policy.

- IV. This policy supersedes and cancels all other policies which relate to the subject matter contained herein and which may be in conflict herewith.
